Book Of Life

Music and Lyrics by: Charly Sahona

They say life will go this way, like a domino's fall.

I can feel it deep inside : mine's about to change.

Like the days I will rise.

We both heard the whisper say : "Let's stay on this road".

A realm of light and bliss lies ahead.

Maybe the soldiers of fate

Brought us together ?

Or is it a book of life that

We write each day?

From a depth only the soul knows, comes a swelling craze.

A wind of hope blows as we rise.

Maybe the soldiers of fate

Brought us together ?

Is it a book of life that

We write each day?

Did things arrive on purpose,

Did we look for love ?

The fields of jewels will shine again....

Maybe the soldiers of fate

Brought us together ?

Is it a book of life that

We write each day?

Is it the fate that makes us

Depend on its will?

Is it a book of life that

We write each day?

Did things arrive on purpose ?
