

She Said

Born Country

Well I came home today like any other day sat down and drank a beer she came up to me, eyes full of tears said, Im movin on my way and she said....I just wanna be free is what she said to me I don't wanna cook and clean don't want anything honey don't you see that's what she said to meWell she left today...she told me she was going away Well I begged her , honey please stay But I think I know what she meant I just wish things could have been a little differentplease don't leave I need you don't you see after all years together I thought it'd last forever for you and meI just wanna be free is what she said to me I don't wanna cook and clean
honey don't you see
that's what she said to mesix months today since she went away
I don't think she's comin homeWell she's gone and I don't think she's ever comin home So I guess it's best, That I just keep movin on
