

Blue Denim

Ben Lee

Find the fine line between the good times
And hide em behind the locked door
I got nothing to say about puberty
That you havent heard before
Brutal truths, the troubled youths
And boys, Ill tell you, champ
Spin the bottle, truth or dare
Theyre just trying to get in your pants
Blue denim, come on gimme danger
Blue denim, baby, break it in
Blue denim, girl youre a teenager
Blue denim, feel it on your skin
Darkness creeping round the corner
And I might just creep too
At your feet with your new power
Were all thinking about you
If you want a new sensation
And got something to prove
Teenage screams for your blue jeans
Make up an perfume
Blue denim, come on gimme danger
Blue denim, baby, break it in
Blue denim, girl youre a teenager
Blue denim, feel it on your skin (3x)
Blue denim, blue denim, said blue.
Who can say. what it all means. find the answer..from your new jeans
Blue denim, come on gimme danger
Blue denim, baby, break it in
Blue denim, girl youre a teenager
Blue denim, feel it on your skin (4x)
