Lie In The Sound

Trespassers William

I love you more than I should
So much more than is good for me
More than is goodOh, the timing is cruel
Oh, I need and don't want to need
More than I shouldI am falling, say my name
And I'll lie in the sound
What is love but whatever
My heart needs a roundOh, my sheet is so thin
So I say I can't sleep because It's so very coldBut I know what I need
And if you were just near to me
Would you go?I am falling, say my name
And I'll lie in the sound
What is love but whatever
My heart needs a roundI am falling, say my name
And I'll lie in the sound
What is love but whatever
My heart needs a round
And it needs you too much now
