VVE

Verse 1
I want to drive off every night to the sea
And my bodyâ€™s tired from wasting all these years caught up in the scene
This city breaths exhaust and bleeds from concrete veins
With every new horizon of the tombstone of forgotten graves

Bridge
Thatâ€™s why I need you here
Thatâ€™s why I need you
Thatâ€™s why I need you here
Thatâ€™s why I need you

Verse 2
I knew my sun will rise-up in the morning
Call out to the man who sold his soul for oil and blood for gasoline
And then Iâ€™ll kiss your tired eyes before I go back to my corporate view
And from nine to five Iâ€™ll watch the oceans swell, and Iâ€™ll think of you

Chorus
Cause when I come home I know youâ€™ll free me
When I come home I know Iâ€™m found
In your eyes are open water
In the depths, Iâ€™ll dive and drown (5x)
