I Didn't Know

SayWeCanFly

I didn't know going into this
Just how much my heart would miss yours
I didn't know what the hell to say
'Cause I lost my words when I saw your face

I didn't know how to form my thoughts
'Cause I was so caught up in the way you talk to me
I didn't know going into this
Just how much my heart would miss yours
Just how much my heart would miss yours

Well I don't know you
But I still miss you every single day

I hope you're out there waiting for me
I hope you tell me all your stories
I hope I get to watch the California sunset
Sparkle in your eyes
Sparkle in your eyes

I didn't know you yesterday
When I was to fucked up to pretend I was okay
I didn't know it was 6 am by the time we went to bed

I didn't know I'd miss this place
When I packed my bags and took a plane away
Away, away, away

Well now I know you
But I still need you every single day

I hope you're out there waiting for me
I hope you tell me all your stories
I hope I get to watch the California sunset
Sparkle in your eyes

I hope you're out there waiting for me
I hope you tell me all your stories

I hope you're out there waiting for me(all your stories)

I hope you tell me all your stories(all your stories)
I hope I get to watch the California sunset
Sparkle in your eyes
Sparkle in your eyes
