Sensitivity

Raaban Inc.

I don't even know the real me anymore
I can't even show how I feel
I hit the floor
I'm talking rock bottom
My feelings I fought em
I can't believe it's come to this
'Cause I need to a grip on reality
Now i wanna feel some sensitivity
I'm here, i'm telling you i
Cleared my life
I changed my head
Trying to catch my skin again
I'm finding out what makes me wanna live
By living it up again
It's my world
I paved my way
Found my sensitivity
I stepped back from the edge
Now i'm living it up again
I've been doing fine in my misery
Not crazy
I told them not to worry about me
But everytime i wanna feel some sensitivity
I'm here, i'm telling you i
Cleared my life
I changed my head

Trying to catch my skin again
I'm finding out what makes me wanna live
By living it up again
It's my world
I paved my way
Found my sensitivity
I stepped back from the edge
Now I'm living it up again
Living it up again
Living it up again
Living it up now i'm not crazy i'm just sensitive
I stepped back from the edge

I cleared my life
I changed my head
Trying to catch my skin again
I'm finding out what makes me wanna live
By living it up again
It's my world
I paved my way
Found my sensitivity
Living it up again
I'm living it up again
Living it up again
I'm living it up again
