The real me

Royals

I went back to the doctor to get another shrink
I'll sit and tell him about my weekend
But he never betrays what he thinks
Can you see the real me doctor? Doctor
Can you see the real me doctor? Oh doctor
I went back to my mother, I said, "I'm crazy ma, help me"
She said, "I know how it feels son, 'cos it runs in the family"
C'mon tell me
Can you see the real me mother? Mother
Can you see the real me mother? Oh mother
Can you see, can you see, can you see the real
Can you see, can you see the real me, real me
The cracks between the paving stones
Look like rivers of flowing rain
Strange people who know me
From behind every window pane
The girl I used to love lives in this yellow house Yesterday she passed me by
She doesn't want to know me now
Can you see the real me? Can you? Can you?
Can you see the real me? Can you? Oh yeah
I am in love with the preacher
With full of lies and hate
I seemed to scare him a little
So he showed me to the golden gate
Can you see the real me preacher? Preacher
Can you see the real me preacher? Oh yeah
Can you see, can you see, can you see, oh yeah
Can you see the real me doctor? Doctor
Can you see the real me mother?
Can you see, can you see, can you see

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/