Thinking Underage

Teddy Geiger

So soon to say, it's over
Let's see what happens later on
I'm sixteen, the world just opened wideI've got a pocket full of change
I'm tired of thinking underage
Just cut this string and let me flySay goodbye, say goodbyeForgive me mom and dad
If the music makes you sad
Nothing can prepare us for the day, yeahWhen little boys grow old
And don't do as they're told
I will find my wayI'm just tired of thinking underage
Tired of thinking underage
I'm not thinking underage anymoreAnd I'm first in line at the DMV
I'll sweet talk you just give me the keys
I don't have a curfew in my mindWell, little Katie and me, like rolling stone
She keeps me still by letting go
It's not like we're runnin' out of time'Cause you will find, ya, you will findForgive me mom and dad
If the music makes you sad
Nothing can prepare us for the day, yeahWhen little boys grow old
And don't do as they're told
Well, I will find my wayI'm just tired of thinking underage
Tired of thinking underage
I'm not thinking underage anymoreJust like the gravity, the ups and downs
Will always be okay with me
I am over all that underage can beSo forgive me mom and dad
If the music makes you sad
Nothing can prepare us for the day, yeahWhen little boys grow old
And don't do as they're told
Well, I will find my wayI'm just tired of thinking underage
Tired of thinking underage
I'm not thinking underage anymoreAnd I'm not thinking underage anymore
Underage anymore, no, yeah
I'm not thinking underage
Yeah, I'm not thinking underage anymore
