Soulreaper

Liar

Wail, oh desolate gale
Bring forth your bitter winds
Wail through heart and through soul
A poisoned kiss so deathly cold
Vanish grief and inner painWail, oh desolate gale
Through empires by blackened tears created
On the wings of a wind, the wind of wraith
Whose scythe caresses in rageWind shall sweep the moonless sky
The reflection of a sulphur fire
Wind shall sweep the moonless sky
The reflection of a sulphur fireDismal gale, malicious storm of fate
Brought forth to assail the creation
To bring souls to the wind
Beyond the veils of damnation
To the one without face or nameOh, woeful one of endless sight beyond the veil of time
Of grand darkness you are the Keeper
My soul is black and black as night are the ways of thine
Wield the scythe of the SoulreaperCaressed by the cutting wind
To voyage the oceans of oblivion
Fall into the hands of destiny
For a dawn, there no more will beWail, oh desolate gale
Through empires by blackened tears created
On the wings of a wind, the wind of wraith
Whose scythe caresses in rageWail, oh desolate gale
Bring upon me your bitter winds
And wail through my heart, wail through cold
Take my life, reap my soul
Vanish grief and inner painWoeful one of endless sights, beyond the veil of time
Reap the darkness, you are the Keeper
My soul is black and black as night are the ways of thine
Wield the scythe of the SoulreaperThe wind shall sweep the moonless sky
The reflection of a sulphur fire
And the wind swept through the moonless sky
The reflection of a sulphur fireThe wind swept through the moonless sky
The reflection of a sulphur fire
