

They've Trapped Us Boys

Jakob Dylan

Gentlemen where have we been
Can't find the hole where we got in
We ain't have no letters since spring
Gentlemen where have we been
We ain't going nowhere now
I'll let this bottle make its rounds
And let this liquor settle down
We ain't going nowhere now
Darker than ever in the mind
I shine a light, shine a light
Now, holler back now, make some noise
I do believe they trapped us boys
Now, fill the dirt back on the graves
Ain't nothing good here being raised
I look at the filthy mess we made
Fill the dirt back on the graves
We cut the fruit, we took the tree
We chiseled all the branches free
We took more than we'd ever need
And we cut the fruit and we took the tree
It's darker than ever in the mind
I shine a light, shine a light
Now, holler back now, make some noise
I do believe they trapped us boys
Can't have no one not toe the line
Around here it's always 'round midnight
We can't have no brothers left behind
We can't have no one not toe the line
That ain't the cavalry we heard
It's the rain that's crashing on the earth
I tell our women and our children we ain't hurt
And no, that ain't the cavalry we heard
It's darker than ever in the mind
I shine a light, shine a light
Now, holler back now, make some noise
I do believe they trapped us boys
