

Donnie (Ole Evenrude Version)

Ace of Base

Donnie's got a secret and you know it
He was yours, in the summertime, yeah
About ten years ago
He promised you to stay forever
Live with you
It's so bittersweet now
When you know what you lost Donnie was the boy you always wanted by your side
Donnie was the boy your girlfriends fell for one by one
Donnie was the boy you always wanted day and night
But Donnie had a girlfriend: tender, sexy, sweet and
Blond He's always on your mind
The season changes
Years went by
But that chapter of love stays unfinished for you Keep on dancing through your new life
Maybe, make a move
Make him see you again,
As the flower you are Donnie was the boy you always wanted by your side
Donnie was the boy your girlfriends fell for one by one
Donnie was the boy you always wanted day and night
But Donnie had a girlfriend, tender, sexy, sweet and
Blond In the summer time, yeah
In the summer time, life was easy
On the beach you had him long ago In the summer time, yeah
In the summer time, life was easy
On the beach you had him long ago Donnie was the boy you always wanted by your side
