

We Didn't Realize

Lyn Saga

Maybe you could be the one who I adore
Be the one Iâ€™m looking for
Maybe you could be the one who I love more
Than myself
Letâ€™s fast forward right now to a few years more
Married with three kids at home
Things seemed perfect but we were so wrong
All along

(Letâ€™s start over again
From the beginning when Things were simple back then
We didnâ€™t realize
But now weâ€™re not the same
Only ourselves to blame
For all the hurt and pain
We didnâ€™t realize)

Maybe this was meant to be and never last
Terribly so, hearts of glass
Things were so much better back then in the past
And so we ask

(chorus)
(guitar solo)
