

Banana Man

Tally Hall

[spoken] Ladies and Gentlemen, curl PT Chester with boys are proud to present Bumbo Chumbo and the Zimbabwe Songbirds!

Do you see banana man
Hopping over on the white hot sand
Here he come with some for me
Freshly taken from banana tree
(1,2,3,4)

Banana man me want a tan
Give me double on the bonus one
Give me more for all me friends
Dis banana flow never end

Do you want a banana?
Peel it down and go mm mm mm mm
Do you want a banana?
Dis banana for you

Tonight we dance around the flame
Then we get to play the spirit game
Spirit names we shout out loud
Shake the thunder from the spirit cloud
Morning songbirds in the tree
Chant a tune to let the spirits free
Then we see them in the night
Spirits jumpin by the fire light

Do you want a banana? (Do you want a banana)
Peel it down and go mm mm mm mm
Do you want a banana? (Do you want a banana)
Dis banana for you
(oh ho ho) (ahhh)

Look you your too uptight you know
You can laugh and kick it back and go (weeee)
But without a rhythm or a rhyme
You do not banana all the time
Fly away from city on the run
Try to make a little fun

(ah huh ah huh ah huh ah huh ah huh ah huh ah huh)

Look you come to the bungalo
Africans you tell me dont you so
Dont you love the pumping of the drum
Make you shake until the bum go numb
Let the bungo play you till you drop
Dis banana never stop (never stop, never stop)

Forget all your troubles and go with the flow
Forget about whatever you may never know
Like whether whatever you are doing is whatever you should and whether anything you do is every really any good

And then Forget about banana when it sticks in your throat
And when they make you wanna bellow but your stuck in a choke and you forget about the yell from the colorful men that'll make you take another one and make a mock of your plan

Bungale Bungalo make up your mind and tell me no ummmm shhh

Well its nine o'clock and its getting dark and the sun is falling from the sky
I've never left so early and you may wonder why whistle

(talking in the background - sriry i cant get what they're saying)

Tomorrow morning on the plane
No banana make you go insane
Floating back to busy town
No banana make you want to frown

Do you want a banana? (Do you want a banana)
Peel it down and go mm mm mm mm
Do you want a banana?
Dis banana for you
