

Eloise

Miguel Nández

Yesterday, I was all alone
Nobody called on the telephone
 Yeah, I was down
 But now things are changin'
 I met a girl with a 45
 Drive in, sister
 Hunky dory eyes
 Satellite of love, infatuation
 So put your suitcase in my car
 Bring a pocket full of stars
 I love you for who you are, Eloise
 You always say what I wanna hear
 Speak the truth and it's loud and clear
Oh yeah, you lifted me up from my desolation
 I won't be lookin' the other way

At pretty things that may pass my way
I've straight ahead now with no complications
 So put your suitcase in my car
 Bring a pocket full of stars
 I love you for who you are, Eloise
 Well, I don't know what I'm doin'
 But I know that I ain't doin' without you
 'Cause I know what I believe in
And I know that I ain't leavin' without you, Eloise
 So put your suitcase in my car
 Bring a pocket full of stars
 I love you for who you are, Eloise
 Yeah, put your suitcase in my car
 Bring a pocket full of stars
I love you for who you are, Eloise, now Eloise
