The Little Lows

Marble Sounds

No more accusations, no longer in denial
I could be brave and face them
But I will pass for now
Sometimes I feel sensations,
Sometimes I just feel sad
I try imagination,
Til it got confusing in my head!Something shattered on the floor
And it adds up to the little lows
It shouldn't be a way down!
It shouldn't be a way down!
The lesson that we learned before
What easy comes, easy goes
It shouldn't be a way down!
It shouldn't be a way down!
No more insinuations, time to reveal the proof
You're always on for changes, unless they'll change you to
To ease their own temptations, your statement is not my call
What I find entertaing, what drives some models up the wall?Something shattered on the floor
And it adds up to the little lows
It shouldn't be a way down!
It shouldn't be a way down!
The lesson that we learned before
What easy comes, easy goes
It shouldn't be a way down!
It shouldn't be a way down!No more accusations, no longer in denial
I could be brave and face them
But I will pass for now
Sometimes I feel sensations,
Sometimes I just feel sad
I try imagination,
Til it got confusing in my head!
Something shattered on the floor
And it adds up to the little lows
It shouldn't be a way down!
It shouldn't be a way down!
The lesson that we learned before
What easy comes, easy goes
It shouldn't be a way down!
It shouldn't be a way down!
