When You Come Around

Bryan White

The day I was leaving
I was feeling insecure
I thought that I'd thrown away
All of those days and what we had beforeAnd now I believe it
After what you had to say
I thought about every day, in every way
And this is what I'll say now, babyYou don't have to worry
'Cause everything's all right
(All right)
I know that you'll get me
That you'll get me through the night
(Night)When you come around
You know you pick me up when I'm feeling down
And I want you to know
Baby, how can I show
Do I have to scream and shoutWhen you come around
You only have to smile and you knock me out
But I'm here on the floor
And I'm begging for more
Baby, that's true love's aboutThere's so many reasons
Why our love is guaranteed
So many reasons why I can't hide
Just what you mean to meSo say what you're thinking
While you're sitting next to me
Let all your feelings show, just let me know
Just how it's meant to be now, babyYou don't have to worry
'Cause everything's all right
(All right)
I know that you'll get me
That you'll get me through the night
(Night)When you come around
You know you pick me up when I'm feeling down
And I want you to know
Baby, how can I show
Do I have to scream and shoutWhen you come around
(Come around baby)
You only have to smile and you knock me out
But I'm here on the floor
And I'm begging for more

Baby, that's true love's aboutYou don't have to worry
'Cause everything's all right
(All right)
I know that you'll get me
That you'll get me through the nightWhen you come around
(When you come around)
You know you pick me up when I'm feeling down
(I'm feeling down)
And I want you to know
Baby, how can I show
Do I have to scream and shoutWhen you come around
(Come around baby)
You only have to smile and you knock me out
(Knock me out)
But I'm here on the floor
And I'm begging for more
Baby, that's true love's aboutWhen you come around
(When you come around)
You know you pick me up when I'm feeling down
(I'm feeling down)
And I want you to know
Baby, how can I show
Do I have to scream and shout
When you come around
