

The Tiny Voice of Reason

Reverend Horton Heat

everyone ignore the girl in the chair with barrets in her hair of gold everyone ignores little questions she'll ask bout your grand deals tasks so boldbuddy little girl out playing in the sun
the tiny voice of reason
is louder than your gun everyone ignores little games she'll play little prayers she'll pray at night everyone ignores the trees of greed cause they're stuck in a scene alrightbuddy little girl loves God and dad and mom
is louder than your bomb everyone ignores the girl in the chair with barrets in her hair of goldbuddy little girl
out playing in the sun
