

I'm Just a Man

INXS

I'm just a man, my will is so strong
When I've got plans
I close my eyes to the painMy mother ran, my father left town
But we still have
What's necessary to go onFlesh and blood, flesh and bloodI'm part of you, you're part of me
There's nothing sad
Yeah, that can not be undoneMy brother's sane, his heart is so strong
He's killed some pain
And to himself, nearly did the sameIt washed away, into the cruel sea
Like everything
That's built upon the sandFlesh and blood, flesh and bloodSweet sister T, she loved so long and hard
Kept to herself
Until that right man came alongSome men, they lie, some men, they cheat
But now she's found
Yeah, someone to be as strongI'm just a man, my will is so strong
When I've got plans
I close my eyes to the painMy mother ran, my father left town
But we still have
What's necessary to go onI'm part of you, you're part of me
