R U Kiddin Me

Anouk

Sure got my piece of Heaven
Angel in disguise, gone wild
But I thought you were a man
Who knew right from wrong
That's why I really don't understand
Why he's with her? It's killing me
What has she got that I don't have?
Is it the way she looks at you
Laughs with you, can she?
Does she make you beg for more
This is hurting
What has she got that I don't have?
I tried to call him anytime, anywhere
But he's never there
So I went to his place and waited all day
So he would explain it to me
And this is what he said
He said
"There is nothing left to say
I had my fill, I went away
Your crying eyes won't change a thing
It was just a fling"
How could an angel break my heart?
We could still be friends
Are you kidding me?
What has she got that I don't have?
Is it the way she looks at you?
Talks to you, can she?
Does she make you beg for more
This is hurting
What has she got that I don't have, I don't have?
But twice every year when he's in tears
"(Twice every year when he's in tears)
When he loses his mind and can't help but cry
He'll call me and then
(Call me and then)
I am better than, I am
I, I am better than, I am
I am, I am, I am better than

Baby, baby, baby, baby
Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
What has she got that I don't have?
What has she got that I don't have?
What has she got that I don't have?
Baby, baby, yeah, yeah
