Home

Sons Of Zion

where have you been?
the lady pulled me closer, asking still chasing dreams is it everything you hoped for the house looked the same the lining on the bed, and the color of paint but one thing has changed my love for my family has grown with its age(chorus) so when I'm on the road i feel you beside me your something that i owe when I'm on the stage your spirits still remains cause i know it when i feel it that i won't be alone today making tracks from top to the bottom its only just a thought away one day ill be back again so ill keep you in my heart till then somethins bound to take me home home,home my home is where your heart is(x2)state highway one my car full of gas and my back to the sun i can seem to remember doing this with you in 03' you put family first, when times were the worst you called me your treasure and after all we've been through theres one thing i remember(chorus)(instruments playing)(chorus)

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/