Tristania

Theres a maze
Of nights and days
You dont fear the time
Stars and sky define the road
And they clear our sight
I will be your eyes and ears
Walk with me tonight
Somewhere ahead the gate is open
And the woods aliveShadows soon rise
I will move on
Leave you behind
Your flame is burning
Kiss me goodbye
Its getting late
Im still your shield
The world keeps turningWounds need time to healHush my child
Now do not weep
Put your hand in mine
Ive got promises to keep
I will stand you by
I have given life to you
Find your strength my child
There is a magic world awaiting
Made of light and smiles
