

Love's Gone

Virgin Steele

Don't say that you want love
As you're walking out my door
Don't say that you need love
'Cause I can't love you anymore lay down in rapture
In this crowded town of fear
Hang your head in shame my dear
You gonna roll alone Love's gone
It's gone away Highway in starlit
You shed your blood upon the sun
You lock your love
In bitterness
And now you're left with none God, I loved you one time
When we walked the world alone
The face that love could not
Forgive
The heart will turn to stone Love's gone
It's gone away I fell you body writhe
Like a snake in my arms
Wrap yourself around me, baby
Oh, yeah, ohh, yeah Love's gone
It's gone away
