Easy Love

Kristen May

Golden embers fall in the night
Melting over the snow outside
Moonlight sets a glow to your eyes
Revealing every loose of my disguise

And I feel heavy inside
Falling into you and then you whisper
You know Iâ€™ve got you
And If you run, just know Iâ€™m there too

Iâ€™m tired of the nice things we say
I wanna see your heart even if it breaks
This may not always be an easy love
Itâ€™s the deepest well I know and built on trust

And I feel heavy inside
Fall into you and then you whisper
You know Iâ€™ve got you
And if you run, just know Iâ€™m there too
Ohhh yeah

And I feel heavy inside
Fall into you and then you whisper
You know Iâ€™ve got you
And if you run, just know Iâ€™m there too
Ohhh yeah yeah yeah yeah
