Two Step

Gemma Hayes

Two steps closer, than I had in mind,
But I am good at the cold shoulder
I lost myself, trying to catch the sun
I gave you everything, left myself with none

Well, I'm living straight now you're not on my mind
My sweet addiction, always at the side

Stop chasing every little thing that sparks
You'll carry all you ever need in your heart
Stop chasing every little thing

I'm sorry but I'm restless
The closer it gets, the less I need it
I lost myself trying to catch the sun
Turn the corner, now walk on

Stop chasing every little thing that sparks
You'll carry all you ever need in your heart
Stop chasing every little thing that sparks
You'll carry all you ever need in your heart

Oh, wait a minute more
'Cause you almost said it out, oh wait a minute more
'Cause you almost said it, say it to me now

Stop chasing every little thing that sparks
You'll carry all you ever need in your heart
Stop chasing every little thing that sparks
You'll carry all you ever need in your heart

Stop chasing every little thing that sparks
(It always sparkles from a distance)
You'll carry all you ever need in your heart
(It'll burn you in an instant)
