Promised Land

Samael

Opening the circle avoiding the loop
Linking patterns in a single group
Expending our lives further than this world
Widening our views, focusing our thoughtsWeightlessness of unlocked mind
Gliding above the world of thoughts
Bypassing second-hand visions
Aiming at the core of existence
Ascertaining horizons
Summarizing abstractions
Constructing new foundations
With freshly found explanations
The quest is never-ending
But you keep on growing
Paradise is at hand
You're born it, you're born with
But still searching for it
In your head is the promised landReaching greatness mirrored inside what's left unpeeled
Extending knowledge to frontiers of understanding
Converting doubt and hate into love and faith
Ascending from within, accessing our realmThe quest is never-ending
But you keep on growing
Paradise is at hand
You're born it, you're born with
But still searching for it
In your head is the promised landConverting doubt and hate into love and faith
The quest is never-ending
But you keep on growing
Paradise is at hand
You're born it, you're born with
But still searching for it
In your head is the promised land
