

All About You

Hoobastank

I spill out my heart but you don't hear a word
'Cause you're busy thinking 'bout how long 'til it's your turn
So you can go on and on about yourself
Go on and on about yourself
And my heart can go back on the shelf
Go on and on about yourself
But it's not all about you, all about you
The more you speak the less I care about you, you, you, you
It's not all about you, the world turns without you
The more you speak, the less I care about you, you, you
Whatever I do you've already done
Only you've done it better and way before anyone
'Cause you think that it's some game to win
You think that it's some game to win
Accomplishments and places been
You think that it's some game to win
But it's not all about you, all about you
The more you speak the less I care about you, you, you, you
It's not all about you, the world turns without you
The more you speak the less I care about you, you, you, you
Care about you, you, you
You go on and on and on about yourself
You go on and on and on about yourself
The list of who you know
The places that you've been
Why can't you see nobody cares about you? It's not all about you
The more you speak the less I care about you, you, you, you
It's not all about you, the world turns without you
The more you speak the less I care about you, you, you, you
Care about you
