

Jesus Christ Supermall

The Sidekicks

yeah right you can't be right to everyone alive to every other eye you find inside the grocery you're severed like some seasonal organic wit you're leveled like the leaves you left cultivated your id is like times you thought time was your own an after an after didn't help
an after an after isn't hell or new yeah right you can't be vogue magazine opposed and still be laughing at those jokes beautiful told me so and so what if Cindy said you kissed I'll list them all one at the lake two at jesus christ supermall who could call me in the pub I don't have a signal and you could love me when love means simple and when an after
an after didn't help
an after
an after isn't hell or new when all that humans are doin is just being uncomfortably human when the same rain that gives life movement makes us sad
an after
an after didn't help
an after isn't hell
or new when you knew everything is tragically tied chemically a finger and its diamond ring
an after
an after

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>