

Ordinary Bummer

Iggy Pop

Lovely games of yesterday
Have left me with my soul today
Felicity flies out the door
When people lose their warmth
That's a very ordinary bummer
I'll hold out for summer days
Stand and laugh and run
In a quiet movie of mine
I saw a girl with eyes like fire
I had to look away
She was swearing like a sailor

And demanding her own way
That was when I knew, I had to love her
I opened up my sad old eyes
And let the feelings run
With a quiet beauty of mine
Maybe, sometimes we do bad things
And then other times we do good
And sometimes from something very bad comes
Something very good in a quiet year of mine
