

Giving You More

Aaliyah

All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more
All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more Let me be your angel, I'm ready, ready to get goin' on ya love
You don't have to worry, I'm ready to do
And whatever you require, is my one and only desire
Call on me and you know that I'll be all you need
Come to me, I got what you like and your love, I won't deny All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more
All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more Let me be the one that you run to Everything that you're goin' through
And if you feel kind of lonely, you just call me
Anytime, any place, anywhere All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more
All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more I'm givin' you more, all of the love you need
I'm givin' you more, all of the love you need
I'm givin' you more, all of the love you need
I'm givin' you more, all of the love you need My love is right here for you
And I'm down to give you every part of me, can't you see All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more
All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more
All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more All that you need, all that you want
I wanna be the one that's giving you more All that you need
All that you need
All that you need
