Liquor

Superdrag

You never knew
The things your beauty made me want to do
As if you'd care
As if you'd ever let me take you thereI guess you'll never see
What you could have had in me
It never could be true
Thing I only could've felt inside of youI saw your eyes
I knew that you were gone, it's no surprise
I kissed your face
I didn't know it would invade your spaceI guess you'll never see
What you could've had in me
It never could be true
Thing I only could've felt inside of you
I guess that's true
