Loud Like Love

Placebo

Love on an atom,
Love on a cloud,
To see the birth of all that isn't now
Can you imagine a love that is so proud?
It never has to question why or how
So I'd abandon the love in my dreams
When I wake up I'm soaking in my sheetsBreathe
Breathe

Believe, believe, believeFor all of our youth We have craved them

Their beauty and their truthBreathe, breathe, breathe, breathe, believe, believe, believe

Breathe, breathe, breathe

Believe, believeThat we are loud likeLove on an atom

Love on a cloud

To see the birth of all that isn't now

Can you imagine a love that is so proud?

It never has to question why or howFor all of our youth

We have craved them

Their beauty and their truth

So we name them

And somehow they pull us through

We have craved them

For all of our youthBreathe, breathe, breathe

Believe, Believe, believe, believeWe are loud like love

We are loud like loveWe are loud like love
