

Just to Look At You

Bebo Norman

I would give my soul just to look at you
And everything I know just to see it through
To let all the others fade away
And turn all my darkness into day
My love, I would give my soul just to look at you Would you believe in me?
Or would you walk away in need?
Would you believe in me?
Or would you turn away and leave?
Either way, my love
I would give my soul just to look at you And if you found my heart would you run it dry?
And break it all apart just to run and hide
And make all the colors fade away
Into another shade of gray
My love, I'd still give my soul just to look at you Would you believe in me?
Or would you walk away in need?
Would you believe in me?
Or would you turn away and leave?
Either way, my love
I would give my soul just to look at you Would you believe in me?
Or would you walk away in need?
'Cause I don't know where, and I don't know how
But I just want to see you now So, would you believe in me?
Or would you turn away and leave?
Either way, my love
I would give my soul just to look at you yeah
I would give my soul just to look at you
