Civilian Tiger

Little Red Lung

Civilian tiger
Stripes in the dirt
Rippling water
A stampeding herd
A million hearts

Buck knife and arrow
Shovel and pail
You rip out the marrow
And bury the tail
Hands and feet

Those to naval
Spread and tangle
Tires humming
The sea's rejoicing

Sex and marches
Sex and marches
Footprints in the snow
Footprints in the snow

I whisper an answer
His eyes gray and cold
The murderer absent
No longer a prince
This year
