

Bringing Down the Giant

Saving Abel

Bringing down the giant. Oh. I hit the wall I got back up and dusted off. Im past the pain and Im taking back all that I lost, Im going to kick you off the throne hang your crown up on the wall, yeah your glory days are gone gone gone. Yeah Im bringing down the giant I wont sit here undecided. When your world comes crashing down Ill remind you Im the one whos laughing loud in you face yeah yeah your karmas coming back here to find you this is going to get a little violent yeah Im bringing down bringing down the giant. Too many lies bound up inside your bound to fall, standing face to face your not so big after all take your bow you had your shot looking down while your on top now your glory days are gone gone gone yeah Im bringing down the giant I wont sit here undecided (Chorus). (Chorus repeat). Im the one whos laughing loud in your face, yeah your karmas coming back here to find you things are going to get a little violent yeah Im bringing down bringing down the giant.
