

Number One

Jebediah

Now, brains and emotions have never been friends
If you ask my opinion, it always depends
Better hang onto what you've got
Better hand onto what you've got Now, love and confusion have always been true
I hate to break the illusion but what can you do
Better hang onto what you've got
Better hand onto what you've got You had a girl
You'd give anything for one more chance
But, you threw it away
You've got yourself to blame
But, you threw it away
You've got yourself Now, I've never been one for giving advice
In a strange situation don't start throwing dice
Better hang onto what you've got
Better hang onto what you've got You had a girl
You'd give anything for one more chance
But, you threw it away
You've got yourself to blame
But, you threw it away
You've got yourself, come on You had a girl
You'd give anything for one more chance
You had a girl
You'd give anything for one more chance
But, you threw it away
You've got yourself to blame
But, you threw it away
You've got yourself You've got yourself to blame
You've got yourself
You've got yourself to blame
