Loser Dust

Courtney Love

You are beautiful, you are glorious
Now you're, you're covered in loser dust
You are fabulous, you are gorgeous
Now you're, you're covered in loser dustAnd all the things I used to trust
And all the things I'm about to crush
Your youth is gone, it's turned to rust
It's all covered in loser dustHey, I loathe every inch of you
You're going down for what you love
Hey, every single particle
You're going down for your loser dust
Hey, all the things you used to trust
You're going downI'm burnt out, I'm furious
And look at you, you're embarrassing us
Ascend, descend and go you must
Or isolate the prize, give it one big flushIt's indiscreet, omnivorous
We won't call you and don't call us
And all that's sick with gloat and lust
And, and don't call me, so I'm seriousIt's not an image, it's just a way
You're going down for your final crush
Hey, nothing here can stop you with
You're going down for your loser dustHey, I can't wait to see you go
You're going down for your loser dust
Hey, show me one thing I didn't know
You're going downThink fast, baby, what is the rush?
The very thing you would never trust
The very thing you would never touch
It's all covered in loser dustThese women all around, obsessive cunts
File under miscellaneous
They're starving and carnivorous
I, I mustn't touch what I want so muchYou, you make me nervous, you make me drunk
Do you have to grovel so very much?
It's so unfair, it's so unjust
It's just another witch huntBroken, shattered, busted, yeah
You're going down for what you love
Hey, all the death, it's just good, yeah
You're going down for your loser dustHey, oh, just die in public, babe
You're going down for your loser dust
Hey, in your eyes a gutter, yeah
You're going down for your loser dustHey, we can't wait to see you go

You're going down, hey, yeah
