

24 Hours

Sky Ferreira

The seconds run away, minutes passed
At speeds we can run at
As hours start to fade deep into night
I'm not in the mood for laughingIt's slipping away
There's nothing we can do
It's slipping away
There's no tomorrow without youI wish these 24 hours
Would never end
Oh in these 24 hours
Wish the clock had no hand24 hours
We still have time
For 24 hours
You're still mineIf this isn't real, just can't deal
In a way you could say I was always a cynic
Hopeful for a while, lost in denial
I wish this could last foreverIt's slipping away
There's nothing we can do
It's slipping away
There's no tomorrow without youIt's slipping away
There's nothing we can do
It's slipping away
There's no tomorrow without youI wish these 24 hours
Would never end
Oh in these 24 hours
Wish the clock had no hand24 hours
We still have time
If 24 hours
You're still mine
I wish these 24 hours
Would never endI I
I I
I won't tell no one
I won't tell no one
I won't tell no one
Cause in 24 hours
Cause in 24 hours
You'll be gone
You'll be gone
You'll be gone

In 24 hours In 24 hours
We still have time
For 24 hours
You're still mine
I wish these 24 hours
Would never end I wish these 24 hours
Would never end
Oh in these 24 hours
Wish to forget nothing
