24 Hours

Sky Ferreira

The seconds run away, minutes passed

At speeds we can run at

As hours start to fade deep into night

I'm not in the mood for laughingIt's slipping away

There's nothing we can do

It's slipping away

There's no tomorrow without youI wish these 24 hours

Would never end

Oh in these 24 hours

Wish the clock had no hand24 hours

We still have time

For 24 hours

You're still mineIf this isn't real, just can't deal

In a way you could say I was always a cynic

Hopeful for a while, lost in denial

I wish this could last foreverIt's slipping away

There's nothing we can do

It's slipping away

There's no tomorrow without youIt's slipping away

There's nothing we can do

It's slipping away

There's no tomorrow without youI wish these 24 hours

Would never end

Oh in these 24 hours

Wish the clock had no hand24 hours

We still have time

If 24 hours

You're still mine

I wish these 24 hours

Would never endI I

Π

I won't tell no one

I won't tell no one

I won't tell no one

Cause in 24 hours

Cause in 24 hours

You'll be gone

You'll be gone

You'll be gone

In 24 hours In 24 hours
We still have time
For 24 hours
You're still mine
I wish these 24 hours
Would never endI wish these 24 hours
Would never end
Oh in these 24 hours
Wish to forget nothing
