

Blue sunshine

Chris Barber & Monty Sunshine

I see your heart beat through the bedsheets
I feel your pulse against the floor
I sleep the sadness that no one else sleeps Feel me cunningly adore. As the tic tock clock lies Goldilocks
What a sick enchanted view Of the white blot sin that we all began not the girl that I once knew.Blue Sunshine Ive got no vacancies
At the top of the clock was Jesus spying on me I spoke of friends point me which direction I tried a bribe of when I die but swore he never mentioned.I kicked and screamed,
"Its simple, you must sing the day I take you, youll be sleeping you wont feel a thing."
