

Makeup (Acoustic)

Everybody Else

Cover it up in the bathroom
While you curse the mirror on the wall
You can change anything that you want to
But your hand is shaking when teacher calls
One desk away, I am begging (?) to say
"What are you so scared of?"
You're putting on makeup
You don't believe in love
What are you so scared of?
Three cigarettes and a razor
Some old ticket stubs (with) on the grass
You're looking for entertainment
But you're so bored with yourself
Never (_____) Then she ran outside
But you're rolling your eyes
What are you so scared of?
You're putting on makeup
You don't believe in love
What are you so scared of?
You got a long walk home
But you've got headphones
Your bangs in your eyes
You need a big shove
What are you so scared of?
You're putting on makeup
You don't believe in love
What are you so scared of?
