

Liquor Store

RF7

Whole lotta shit going down these days
Hard to explain how it got this way
Back in my room got my TV on War against terror, still goin'™ strong

What to do when our world's™ collide
Where to go when we're™ dead inside
Here at home we rape and kill
Fucking kids against their will

Takin'™ a walk to the Liquor store no will to survive
Back inside I hide some more not sure I'm™ alive

Got no answer how to solve this mess
Keep to myself you can handle the rest
Buried my dreams some time ago
Takin'™ shit like you don't™ know

What to do when our world's™ collide
Where to go when we're™ dead inside
No chance to be the winner
Shit Fuck I'm™ just a punk rock singer

Hope I've™ made my self real clear
Don't™ really like what's™ goin on here
Sacrifice what's™ good and right
To covet everything in sight

My own war is growing old
All I had I already sold
All the hate and all that greed
Another beer is all I need
