Baby Satan

Dog Fashion Disco

You are, as dead as you were the day before your parents met unwanted, hungry, and abused(chorus) baby satan is a little brat a vile being in his habitat he was born with horns and a crooked spine to plague the sacred and divineinto another burning hell falls an angel from the sky cursed from birth
until the day that he dies you must be the devil because ive always loved you so
baby satan
you've got the devil in your eyessouls of the damned are in the palms, of the street lightsbaby satan is a little brat
to plague the sacred and divineinto another burning hell
until the day that he dies
baby satan
you've got the devil in your eyesfather of justice. seduce the weakness i hold dearbaby satan .. baby satana plague of locusts arose the children into fearburn down this babylon we'll sleep foreverBABY SATAN!
