

The Closer I Look

Small Black

And if not here
then where else
might one live
easy?in tomorrow?
underneath all the spikes left of memory's sprawl?the closer I look everyday at the doors!But it felt weird just walking outnot sure if I came closeMinor deity to you spoke:
"when first faced with it
take the compliment
more directions
to follow"current sympathies have been of use to me got sad, did something of notehelps to worry sometimes
the closer I look
every day at the wallshave they warned you?
are they going to?
On a bus to Duluth heard about the scene therethe closer I look the more it takes away
the closer I look
the further it feels/seems today/away the more it feels/seems okHave they shown you streets off the main?
Me? I Don't know the way!Lead me there!
Lead me to
some practical uselead me to
