

Losing the Love

TINI

your arrow shot, straight through my heart, ly in the line, push past the dark we once we're young, but now we're only safe our face we could never change the blood flow still looking back ain't single trace this love is a fever, and i'm hit
can't standing on bleeding, let me in
we're losing the loooove
we're losing the loooove
this love was a shelter, from the storm i love to come home too, never more
we're losing the loooove
we're losing the loooove
(oh, ohoh)
(ohohohoh)
the walls we build, can't keep us in the truth is out, the sand pick begins we're once we're young, but now we're always safe our face we can never change the blood flow, still looking back but ain't single trace this love is an fever, and i'm hit cause standing on bleeding, let me in
we're losing the loooove
we're losing the loooove
this love was a shelter, from the storm i'd love to come home too, never more
we're losing the loooove
we're losing the loooove ever wonder why we stay in this room, living is the only promises we made fighting hard to get the walls a break this love is a fever, and i'm hit
can't standing on bleeding, let me in
we're losing the loooove
we're losing the loooove
can't standing on bleeding, let me in (just let me up in there)

we're losing the loooooove we're losing the loooooove (we are losing the loove) your love was a shelter, from the storm enough to come home too, never more
we're losing the loooooove
we're losing the loooove
