Jidenna

[Hook]

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, we the best my nigga

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, we blessed my nigga

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, ain't nobody around here that's ordinaire

Baby I'm extraordinaire[Verse 1]

We walk through that village square and broken glasses everywhere

People pissing in the stairs, they hang their head down in despair

We are here, we are here, they can feel it in the air

We are here, we are here, we are so extraordinaire Round the way they did appear some [?] debonaires

Well at least that's what it seemed 'til we shot clouds up in the air

We are rare, we are rare, Momma told us we are rare

We are rare, we are rare, we were born extraordinaire[Hook]

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, we the best my nigga

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, we blessed my nigga

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, ain't nobody around here that's ordinaire

Baby I'm extraordinaire[Refrain]

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire[Verse 2]

They push strollers in the midnight as if Jim Crow disappeared

Yoga mats are on their back, they walk around without a care

We are here, we are here, they don't want us so we're here

We are here, we are here, always been extraordinaire Found our swag when we were young, we're on the run to millionaires

We fly all over zumundo, we got land out over there

We are rare, we are rare, yeah, my dame is hella rare

We are rare, we are rare, we were born extraordinaire[Hook]

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, we the best my nigga

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, we blessed my nigga

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, ain't nobody around here that's ordinaire

Baby I'm extraordinaire[Refrain]

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire[Bridge]

Told you niggas from the start, they looking at you

All you niggas fall apart, they looking at you

Looking at me, not looking at me

They looking at you, they looking at you

Looking at me, not looking at me

They looking at you, at you...

Told you niggas from the start, they looking at you

All you niggas fall apart, they looking at you

Looking at me, not looking at me

They looking at you, they looking at you

Looking at me, not looking at me

They looking at you, at you...[Hook]

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, we the best my nigga

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, oh yes, my nigga

Extraordinaire

Extraordinaire, ain't nobody around here that's ordinaire

Baby I'm extraordinaire

Baby I'm extraordinaire
