

My God

Marc Broussard

My God, My God
Why have you forsaken me?
I cannot find the light, and I'm constantly running from daylight
God, My God, help me find the way
Back to your Lovin, oh Oh you are the way, the truth, and the life
Burn over me, Lord, send your might
Oh I can do nothing without you
With your strength this dark night, I get through
I'll get through My God, My God
Heal this sin-stained soul
I give my life to You, take me and make me whole
My God, My God
I'm lost and so alone
Drowning in a sea of revelation
Help me find, help me find my way back home Oh you are the way, the truth, and the light
Burn over me, Lord, send your might
Oh, I can do nothing without You
With your strength, this dark night, I'll get through
I'll get through My God, My God, My God
I know you've not forsaken me
But I cannot find the light, and I'm constantly running from daylight
I'm lost and so alone
Drowning in a sea of desolation
Help me find, help me find my way back home
My God, Oh you are the way, the truth and the light
Burn over me, Lord, send your might
Oh I can do nothing without You
With your strength, this dark night, I'll get through
I'll get through
