Scapegoat

Sevendust

I for one will say I haven't seen if all I know
The second chance for me
Was long ago so strange and still
I've had to think about
The world I took that brought me hereWho am I supposed to be?
I breath, I bleed, I'm here to show you all

It's right here beside youLie next to me and you'll see I'm the scapegoat
I'm here to tell you that this ride's not for free

My mistakes

Look at me I'm a scapegoat

What will you do about it? Find a memory to look at life and understand that I can't stop what's supposed to be

But I can show you what it will take

If you would shut the fuck up and listenLie next to me and you'll see I'm the scapegoat
I'm here to tell you that this ride's not for free

Look at me I'm the scapegoat

What will you do about it?Lie

ScapegoatLie next to me and you'll see I'm the scapegoat

I'm here to tell you that this ride's not for free

Look at me I'm the scapegoat

What will you do about it?

About it, what will you do about it?Look at me I'm a scapegoat What will you do about it?
