

Baby Boy

**Clare Burson**

my baby's in the sky my baby's in the river my baby's in the old stone wall in the old stone wallmy baby packed a trunk with more than he could carry more than he could carry down the old dirt road down the old dirt roadand there's a hole in the house where my baby boy lay there's a hole in the house where my baby boy lay there's a hole in the house where my baby boy laythe morning still comes my days are full of cleanin' and the candles still burn as the sun goes downbut there's a hole in the house where my baby boy lay
there's a hole in the house where my baby boy lay there's a hole in the house where my baby boy laybaby boy, lay your head baby boy, lay your head
baby boy lay
baby boy lay
