Crimson Rider

Masterplan

As far as the eye can see
Sharp dressed fools with their crazy rules here
And blinding advice from all my friends
Reaching for perfectionI take off in the night, it won't be long
I'll be fighting there when dawn is breaking
Holy fire I'm not scared of you, I'll take you to burn
Watch out for your enemyDeath can be seconds away
Live for now like there's no tomorrow
And forward we ride in this war like machine
There'll be no returningHoly fire I'm not scared of you, I'll take you to burn, oh yeah
Crimson rider I am the baron of the sky, come feel the wind turnHoly fire I'm not scared of you, I'll take you to burn
Crimson rider I am the baron of the sky, come feel the wind turnAnd when life is evil I'll fly my wings across the sky
Is it our destiny killing our brothers?
